Our approach to customization makes it possible for you to combine your proprietary materials with the “best of Macmillan” to get just the right content, generate funds for your department, and raise your institutional profile with a high-impact author visit.

The Macmillan Author Program can include some or all of the following elements:

- Vetted textbook content, combined with your proprietary materials and aligned with course outcomes
- Content and campus visits from bestselling, award-winning Macmillan authors from Eugenides to Dyson
- Design, production, and consultative expertise of our Hayden-McNeil custom publishing group
- Support for faculty development or any other program needs

We offer simple to complex solutions based on enrollment size. Contact us for more information.

They Say / I Say: The Moves That Matter in Academic Writing, 4e
GERALD GRAFF
CATHY BIRKENSTEIN
The best-selling book that demystifies academic writing, shows students that writing is always part of a larger conversation and teaches them to weave the ideas of others in with their own. It’s a model that’s needed now more than ever. The Fourth Edition adds a new section on Disagreeing without Being Disagreeable, a new chapter on Entering Online Conversations, many new examples, and two new readings.

They Say with Readings, 4e
RUSSEL DURST
The best-selling argument reader includes 40 readings on 5 issues that matter to students today. Half of the readings are new to this edition, including one entirely new chapter, “How Can We Bridge the Differences That Divide Us?”
New online tutorials give students practice recognizing and using the rhetorical moves taught in both books.
Both books are available as ebooks.

The Little Seagull Handbook, 3e
RICHARD BULLOCK
MICHAL BRODY
FRANCINE WEINBERG
The pocket-sized handbook that does the work of a full-sized one.
Offers succinct advice students need about grammar, punctuation, documentation, the writing process—and the kinds of writing they are most often assigned. A new chapter on Editing the Errors That Matter covers 14 errors teachers have identified as ones they care about. Available with free access to InQuizitive for Writers, which provides practice editing these same errors.
Also available in a version with exercises and as an ebook providing 4-year access.

InQuizitive for Writers
INQUIZITIVE.WWNORTON.COM
Adaptive exercises that work like a game to help students practice sentence editing. InQuizitive adapts to feed students personalized questions on the topics they need the most help with—from comma splices to verb tenses. Links to The Little Seagull Handbook ebook provide additional help for those who need it. Free with the Handbook—and available bundled with any text, or stand-alone.
The Norton Sampler, 9e
THOMAS COOLEY

A trusted and engaging collection of short essays with just enough writing instruction. A perfect blend of classic and contemporary readings diverse in subject and perspective.

The Ninth Edition includes 22 new writers—Sonia Sotomayor, Junot Díaz, Sherry Turkle, Matthew Desmond, and more. Sixteen readings on “Overcoming Adversity” cover issues of grit, resilience, and perseverance. Each chapter includes a student essay in the book and a multimodal work online.

Also available as an ebook for just $20.

The Norton Readers, 14e
REVISION 2016 MLA UPDATE
MELISSA GOLDSWAIETE
JOSEPH BIZUP, JOHN BRERETON
ANNE FERNALD, LINDA PETERSON

The largest and most diverse collection of essays. With 60 new essays almost all written in the last decade, a new ebook option, and a unique website that makes the book searchable by theme, genre, rhetorical mode, author, keyword, medium, and more.

Also available in a shorter version and as an ebook.

The Little Norton Reader
MELISSA GOLDSWAIETE

50 of the Norton Reader’s most popular essays, organized chronologically to show how the essay has developed over time.

Also available in a version with readings and as an ebook.
